

Massage Therapy by Zada Cancellation Policy

Updated December 30, 2010

Due to our high “turn-away” numbers and out of respect for your therapist and other clients, our 24-hr cancellation policy is in full effect. Emergency cases will be dealt with individually; please view the following chart concerning our 24-hr cancellation policy.

of Hours Prior to Appointment	Fee
0 - 3	Cost of Service + $20 scheduling fee
3.01 - 12	Cost of Service
12.01 – 24	½ of Cost of Service
24 +	No Fee

If possible, please schedule your appointment online, it will show you what I have available and when. Due to being self-employed, I can only take one client at a time, if you would like to come in with someone, you will need to schedule the two appointments back to back.

All fees will need to be paid prior to your next appointment. If no-shows or late cancellations happen more than two times, you may be asked to pay for your session at the time the appointment is made.

Please call if you have any other questions or concerns. 281-813-9710

Thanks
